- b. Students may also be excluded from class for failure to pay fees that he/she was required to pay in order to undertake or continue the course, as stated in the written agreement
 - c. Where the College intends to exclude a student from class it will first issue a letter which notifies the student and parents of this intention. The letter will provide details of the reason/s for the intended exclusion, as well as information about how to access the College's internal appeals process. Further information about the appeals process in the

the event of a school-initiated cancellation is outlined below

- c. The College is required to report any confirmed breach of course progress and attendance requirements to the Department of Immigration. Where a student is reported for breach of visa condition, his/her enrolment at the College will be cancelled and this may impact on the student's visa. Further information can be found in the College's Course Progress and Attendance Policy.
 - i. For the duration of the internal appeals process, the College will maintain the student's enrolment and the student will attend classes as normal. The Principal will determine if participation in studies will be in class or under a supervised arrangement outside of classes
 - ii. If a student decides to access the College's complaints and appeals process because they have been notified of a College-initiated suspension or cancellation of enrolment under Standard 9, the change in enrolment status will not be reported in PRISMS until the internal complaints and appeals process is finalised, unless extenuating circumstances relating to the welfare of the student apply (see Definitions below)
 - iii. Where extenuating circumstances are deemed to exist, a student may still access the complaints and appeals process, but the College need not await the outcome of this process before changing the student's enrolment status in PRISMS. If the College has issued a CAAW for such a student, welfare provisions under Standard 5.6 are applicable
 - iv. The use of extenuating circumstances by the College to suspend or cancel a student's enrolment prior to the completion of any complaints and appeals process will be supported by appropriate evidence
 - v. The final decision for evaluating extenuating circumstances lies with the Principal

Student to seek information from Department of Immigration

- a. Deferment, suspension and cancellation of enrolment can have an effect on a student's visa as a result of changes to enrolment status. Students can visit the Department of Immigration Website <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/student-500> for further information about their visa conditions and obligations
